LIST OF CONTENTS

NUMBER 1

EDITORIAL
M Solomonow 1

Relative Contributions of the Long and Short Heads of the Biceps Brachii During Single or Dual Isometric Tasks
C Pérot, L André, L Dupont and C Vanhoutte 3

EMG Investigation of the Effects of Peripheral Feedback on Goal-directed Wrist Movements
M E Johanson, D J Bolding and S R Skinner 13

Goniometer Measurement and Computer Analysis of Wrist Angles and Movements Applied to Occupational Repetitive Work
G-Å Hansson, I Balogh, K Ohlsson, L Rylander and S Skerfving 23

EMG Patterns During Running: Intra- and Inter-individual Variability
L Guidetti, G Rivellini and F Figura 37

CONTINUATION OF THE SPECIAL ISSUE VOLUME 5, NUMBER 4, 1995: ELECTROMYOGRAPHY OF THE TRAPEZIUS MUSCLE

Estimating Maximal EMG Amplitude for the Trapezius Muscle: On the Optimization of Experimental Procedure and Electrode Placement for Improved Reliability and Increased Signal Amplitude
C Jensen, O Vasseljen Jr and R H Westgaard 51

The Statistical Confidence of Load Estimates Based on Ramp Calibration of Upper Trapezius EMG
S E Mathiassen 59

Assessment of Jet Pilots' Upper Trapezius Load Calibrated to Maximal Voluntary Contraction and a Standardized Load
K Harms-Ringdahl, J Ekholm, K Schüldt, J Linder and M O Ericson 67

NUMBER 2

Influence of Tonic Neck Reflexes on the Upper Limb Stretch Reflex in Man
A Le Pellec and B Maton 73

Characteristic Changes of Motor Unit Activity in Hip Joint Flexor Muscles During Voluntary Isometric Contraction During Water Immersion
Y Sugajima, G Mitarai, M Koeda and T Moritani 83

Response of Human Soleus Single Motor Units to Changes in Joint Position and Intensity of Peroneal Nerve Stimulation
J S Halle and C G Kukulka 97

H-reflex Modulation During Reverse Passive Pedalling
J D Brooke, S P Dukelow, K B Adamo, J Cheng, W R Staines and J E Misiaszek 111

Acute Effect of Repeated Maximal Isometric Contraction on Electromechanical Delay of Knee Extensor Muscle
S Zhou 117

Reliability of Non-normalized and Normalized Integrated EMG During Maximal Isometric Contractions in Females
D Zakaria, J F Kramer and K L Harburn 129

The Assessment of Motor Recovery: A New Look at an Old Problem
T Mulder, B Nienhuis and J Pauwels 137

NUMBER 3

Electromyographic Evidence of Delayed Fatigue-induced Sarcolemmal Excitability Impairment in McArdle's Disease
W H J P Linssen, D F Stegeman, M J H Merks, R A Binkhorst and S L H Notermans 147

The Effects of Muscle Length and Force Output on the EMG Power Spectrum of the Erector Spinae
A F Mannion and P Dolan 159

Motor Unit Discharge During Muscular After-contraction
G V Kozhina, R S Person, K E Popov, B N Smetanin and V Y Shlikov 169

Moment–Angle Relationship at Lower Limb Joints during Human Walking at Different Velocities
C Frigo, P Crenna and L M Jensen 177

Modelling the Triceps Surae Muscle–Tendon Complex for the Estimation of Length Changes during Walking
C Frigo, J Nielsen and P Crenna 191

Contractile Properties of Human Ankle Muscles Determined by a Systems Analysis Method for the EMG–force Relationship
H Tani and H Nagasaki 205

Myoelectric Activity During Voluntary Elbow Movements in Above-Elbow Amputees
M P Smits 215

Velocity-dependent Muscle Strategy During Plantarflexion in Humans
A Carpentier, J Duchateau and K Hainaut 225

The Effects of Normalization Method on Antagonistic Activity Patterns During Eccentric and Concentric Isokinetic Knee Extension and Flexion
E Kellis and V Baltzopoulos 235

Force-dependent Changes in Movement-related Cortical Potentials
S Oda, M Shibata and T Moritani 247

The Relationship Between the Soleus H-reflex Amplitude and Vibratory Inhibition in Controls and Spastic Subjects. I. Experimental Results
A A J Hilgevoord, J H T M Koelman, L J Bour and B W Ongerboer de Visser 253

The Relationship Between the Soleus H-reflex Amplitude and Vibratory Inhibition in Controls and Spastic Subjects. II. Computer Model
A A J Hilgevoord, L J Bour, J H T M Koelman and B W Ongerboer de Visser 259

Dependence of Average Muscle Fibre Conduction Velocity on Voluntary Contraction Force
T Masuda, T Sadoyama and M Shiraishi 267

EMG-Feedback from Two Muscles in Postural Reactions: A New Pocket Device for the Patient–Therapist Pair
L Tesio, R Gatti, M Monzani and F P Franchignoni 277
